Quarter 2: Week 4 Learning Experiences

Introductory Message

For the facilitator:

Welcome to the Kindergarten Learning Experiences (KLE) for Alternative Delivery Mode (ADM)!

This learning resource was aligned with the identified Most Essential Learning Competencies (MELCs) applicable to the child's real-life situations. This is collaboratively designed, developed and reviewed by educators both from public and private institutions to assist the teacher or facilitator in helping the learners meet the standards set by the K to 12 Curriculum while overcoming their personal, social, and economic constraints in schooling.

This learning resource hopes to engage the learners into guided and independent learning activities at their own pace and time. Furthermore, this also aims to help learners acquire the needed 21st century skills while taking into consideration on their needs and circumstances.

As a facilitator, you are expected to prepare the needed materials in advance. If the suggested materials in the activities herein are not available, it is advised that you will utilize whatever is in the locality.

You also need to keep track of the learners' progress while allowing them to learn through play. You are also expected to encourage and assist the learners as they do the tasks included in the material.

Learning Experiences		Materials	Note to the Facilitator
What I need to know	We love to care for one another by obeying requests and commands.
What I know	Say: Good morning! How are you today? (I'm fine.) That's great! Now, we are going to sing the song about family entitled 'My Family' to the tune of 'Twinkle, Twinkle'. Action Song: My Family (Tune: Twinkle, Twinkle) We love mommy, she loves us We love daddy, yeah really He loves us and so you see We 're a happy family		Optional: Start the day's activity with a prayer. Use any prayer the child is familiar with. Let the learner practice courteous greetings every day.

	We love sister, she loves us We love brother, yeah really He loves us and so you see We 're a happy family
What's new	Ask: Have you enjoyed singing the song? (Yes) What word describes the family in the song? (happy) What makes the family happy? (They love one another.) How can we show love to our family? (By helping, behaving, etc.) Say: Very good! There are many ways that we can show love to our family. Last week you learned about the differences and similarities of families. Today, we will be discussing about caring one another by obeying requests and commands. Activity 1: Obedient Boy Procedure: 1. Read the following scenario: Troy's father came home early from work. He greeted his father while kissing his hands. He was told by his father to get the slipper and keep his shoes to its proper place. What do you think would Troy do? 2. Let the learner describe what Troy should do and act it out.		Provide assistance to the learner when needed but should not do things for him/her.

	3. Tell the learner other scenarios about obeying requests and commands at home. Let him/her act out the scenarios. (Role Playing)
What is it	Discussion (Informal Conversation) about the Activity Say: Wow, you did great in acting out each scenario! Ask: Why do we obey request and commands from our family members or elders? (To show love, care and respect.) Do you offer help without telling you to do so? (Yes) What will you do if your mother is carrying many things? How would you show respect if for instance your grandfather is sleeping, and you want to play? (I will play with my toys quietly.) Say: Yes, there are many ways to show love, care and respect to our family and one of these is by obeying their requests and commands.		Ask these questions one at a time.
What's more	Snack Time • Washing of hands before and after eating • Thanksgiving Prayer • Eating etiquette		These can also be done during meal time.
	Say: Now let's have another activity. Activity 2: Follow Simon Says Procedure:	set of common objects: • 2 chairs • 3 plastic plates • 4 dried leaves	Make sure that the things mentioned are visible and available.

	1. Tell the learner that he/she is going to play the game, Follow Simon Says. Mechanics of the game will be explained to the learner. 2. If the command begins with, Simon says..." you will follow or obey. If the command does not begin with, "Simon says..." you will do nothing. 3. Give the following commands: Simon says get 3 plastic plates. Simon says get 2 chairs. Ella says turn around. Simon says get 5 stones. Simon says get 5 crayons. Simon says get 4 dried leaves. Simon says sit on the chair. Simon says count the chairs, plastic plates, dried leaves, crayons and stones.	• 5 crayons • 5 stones	Remind the learner to listen attentively.
What I have learned	Wrap-up Ask: What have you learned from today's activities? (I have learned that I can show love, care and respect to my family and elders by following or obeying their requests and commands). Say: Very good, it is important for us to obey and respect our parents, elders, and to everyone. We will practice these all the time for us to have a happy family.
What I can do	Application • Let the learner do Worksheet 1 in Annex. Free Play • Have familiar home play games about following commands/requests.

Learning Experiences		Materials	Note to the Facilitator
What I need to know	We use polite words to show respect, love and care for each other.
What I know	Introduction Say: Good morning! Have you slept well last night? Before we begin, let’s stand and move our body. Let’s wiggle our fingers, hands, bend our knees, and shake our body. Say: Great! We are now energized and ready to begin. From our previous lesson, we have learned ways of showing love and care for our family. What is it? (By obeying their request and command.)		Optional: Start the day’s activity with a prayer. Use any prayer the child is familiar with. Then sing any familiar localized song. Count from 1 to 6 in each body movement.

	Today, we will learn more ways of showing love to our family.
What's new	Activity 3: Responding Politely Procedure: 1. Narrate scenarios for the learner to listen to. 2. Ask him/her to say the most appropriate polite words for each scenario: • Your sister shares her sandwich with you. What will you say? (Thank you.) • You want to tell your mother about the broken toys, but she is still talking with the visitor. What will you say? (Excuse me.) • You accidentally pushed your brother while you were playing. What will you say? (I'm sorry.) • You woke up in the morning and you see your father. What will you say? (Good morning!) • You are about to sleep, what will you say to your family? (Good night Mama, Papa, Ate and Kuya. I love you!) • You really want to watch your favorite movie, so you ask your father if you can use his laptop or cellphone but he said that he will allow after his work. What will you say? (It's okay Papa, I will wait when you're done). • You want to drink water but cannot reach the water container. What will you say? (Please help me brother/sister.) What will you say after their help? (Thank you.)		Provide assistance to the learner when needed but do not do things for him/her.

What is it	Discussion (Informal Conversation) about the Activity Say: Good job! Ask: What are some of the polite words that you have learned? (The polite words that I have learned are Thank you, Excuse me, I'm sorry, Please and saying Good morning/night, etc.). Let us count how many polite words you have learned today. (Thank you, Excuse me, I'm sorry, Please, and saying Good morning/night) (1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6) Say: Great, we can also show love to our family by saying polite words.	Ask these questions one at a time.
What's more	Snack Time: • Washing of hands before and after eating • Thanksgiving prayer • Eating etiquette	These can also be done during mealtime.
	Say: Now, let's have another activity. Using the polite words you have learned, ask anybody in the house to help you collect pencils, leaves, seeds stones/pebbles/ twigs. Activity 4: Sorting Quantity of 1 to 6  Procedure: 1. Let the learner do the following: • put all the counters on the table. • count while distributing them to the appropriate boxes;	• Counters: 1 leaf, 2 pencils 3 stones, 4 seeds, 5 pebbles, and 6 twigs • 6 small empty boxes/containers or baskets labeled with number 1 to 6 Provide assistance to the learner when needed but do not do things for him/her. Always remind the learner to arrange/organize the materials or clean the area after the activity. Integrate health hygiene and safety practices as part of the pandemic new normal rules through proper handwashing

	• identify the numbers; • trace numbers 1 to 6 using the finger; • count the materials in each box; (from box 1 up to 6); and • write number 6 on the paper.
What I have learned	Wrap-up Ask: What have you learned from today's activities? (I have learned about polite words and actions. I also learned numbers 1 to 6.) What are the polite words you learned today? (The polite words that I have learned are 'Thank you', 'Excuse me', 'I'm sorry', 'Please' saying 'Good morning/night', 'I love you', etc.) How many polite words have you learned? (6) Count 1 up to 6 with your fingers. What did you say when somebody helped you in collecting the materials in the 6 boxes? (Thank you) Say: Excellent! We will do another activity.		Ask these questions one at a time.
What I can do	Application • Let the learner do Worksheet number 2 in Annex. Free Play • Let the learner count the toys in the house.		Encourage the learner to help in the simple household chores.
