Quarter 2: Week 7 Learning Experiences

Introductory Message

For the facilitator:

Welcome to the Kindergarten Learning Experiences (KLE) for Alternative Delivery Mode (ADM)!

This learning resource was aligned with the identified Most Essential Learning Competencies (MELCs) applicable to the child's real-life situations. This is collaboratively designed, developed and reviewed by educators both from public and private institutions to assist the teacher or facilitator in helping the learners meet the standards set by the K to 12 Curriculum while overcoming their personal, social, and economic constraints in schooling.

This learning resource hopes to engage the learners into guided and independent learning activities at their own pace and time. Furthermore, this also aims to help learners acquire the needed 21st century skills while taking into consideration on their needs and circumstances.

As a facilitator, you are expected to prepare the needed materials in advance. If the suggested materials in the activities herein are not available, it is advised that you will utilize whatever is in the locality.

You also need to keep track of the learners' progress while allowing them to learn through play. Furthermore, you are expected to encourage and assist the learners as they do the tasks included in the material.

QUARTER 2 - WEEK 7 LEARNING EXPERIENCES

Content Standards: The child demonstrates an understanding of increasing his/her conversation skills.
Performance Standards: The child shall be able to confidently speaks and expresses his/her feelings and ideas in words that make sense.
Most Essential Learning Competencies: Use polite greetings and courteous expressions in appropriate situations 1.1. Good morning/Good afternoon/Good evening
Content Focus: We care for one another by using polite words and actions.
Learning Experiences		Materials	Note to the Facilitator
What I need to know	I can greet Good morning/Good afternoon to everyone.
What I know	Say: Hello, Good morning/Good afternoon! How are you today? Ask: What have you learned from the previous activities? (I learned about letter Dd and its sound.) What is the sound of letter Dd? /d/ Say: Say it again three times. /d/ Excellent! You already know letter Dd and its sound. Now, please give me examples of words or names that begin with /d/. (dog, duck, dolphin, diaper, etc.) Say: After waking up this morning, what did you do? (I fixed my bed, I washed my face, etc.) Ask: When you see your mom after waking up, what did you do? (I greeted my mom) How did you greet your mom? (I said, “Good morning, mama/mother.”)		Optional: Start the day’s activity with a prayer. Use any prayer the child is familiar with. Then sing any familiar localized song. Let the learner practice courteous greetings every day. Introduce the flow of this routine every day.

	When it is early in the morning, you need to greet your mom or any family member by saying, “Good morning, mama/papa/ate/kuya.” When it is after lunch you need to say, “Good afternoon, mama/papa/ate/kuya.” When it is night time you need to say, “Good evening, mama/papa/ate/kuya.” How are you going to greet your family member after waking up? (Good morning!) How about when it is after lunch or afternoon? (Good afternoon!) How about during night time? (Good evening!) Well done! Now, let’s have a game.		Note: If the child wasn’t able to greet her mom after waking up, teach him/her how to do it.
What’s new	Activity 1: Greetings at Home Procedure: 1. Narrate scenarios for the learner to listen to. 2. Ask him/her to say the most appropriate polite words for each scenario. • You see your father coming from work and is about to enter in your house early in the morning. What would you say to him? (Good morning, papa/father.) • Your auntie visits your house after dinner or during nighttime. What would you say to her? (Good evening, auntie.) • Your grandmother visits your house after lunch time. What would you say to her? (Good afternoon, lola/grandma.)

What is it	Discussion (Informal Conversation) about the Activity Ask: How are we going to greet our family members after waking up? (Good morning!) How about after lunch time? (Good afternoon!) How about during nighttime? (Good evening!) Say: Very Good! You greeted your family members correctly. It is important to greet our family members or any person who are coming to our house for them to feel that they are welcome and to show that we care for them.
What's more	Snack Time: • Washing of hands before and after eating • Thanksgiving prayer • Eating etiquette		Teach the learner the importance of these routines and encourage him/her to practice all of these during snacks and meal time.
	Say: Last time we also talked about number 7. Now, we will do number 7 mosaic. Activity 2: My Number 7 Mosaic Procedure: 1. Provide the learner with number 7 template. 2. Let the learner do the following: • cut the recycled/scrap colored papers or old magazines into small pieces (or any shape he/she wants); • paste the cut recycled/scrap colored papers or old magazines within the number 7 template; • trace the number 7 mosaic; and • count 7 pieces of counters.	• recycled/scrap colored papers/old magazines • pair of scissors • glue • pieces of any available counters: stones, bottle caps, seeds, plastic spoon or fork, etc.	Assist the learner in making the activity especially in cutting the recycled/scrap colored papers/old magazines. Prepare the number 7 template (use the one found in Annex 1) and recycled/scrap colored papers/ old magazines before the start of the activity. Note: You may use other materials found in your locality such as leaves, twigs, sequence, etc.

What I have learned	Wrap-up Ask: What have you learned today? (I learned when to say “Good morning.”, “Good afternoon.” and “Good evening.”) What have you formed in your mosaic? (I formed number 7) Say: Please count 7 pieces of stones for me. (1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7) Ask: How many days are there in a week? (There are 7 days.) Say: Let’s name together the days of the week. (Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday) If you will say “Good morning.” to your mother every day, how many times will you be able to greet her in a week? (7 times) If you will say “Good evening.” to your father every day how many times will you be able to greet him in a week? (7 times)	Use the calendar to show the days of the week. Remind the learner to practice the polite greetings learned should s/he forget. Allow the learner to select any free play that integrate the counting of 7. e.g. hopping 7 times on the floor; climbing the stairs up and down up to 7 steps, etc.
What I can do	Application • Let the learner practice the greeting to each family member after waking up. Let him/her greet everyone during nighttime or when someone visits their house. • Let the learner play “Pick-up Sticks” using seven sticks or any game that uses counters. Let him/her count the sticks/counters before playing.	Supervise the learner when playing “Pick-up Sticks”

Most Essential Learning Competencies: Use polite greetings and courteous expressions in appropriate situations 1.2. Thank you/You're welcome
Content Focus: We care for one another by using polite words and actions.
Learning Experiences		Materials	Note to the Facilitator
What I need to know	I can say Thank you/You're welcome in an appropriate situation.
What I know	Say: Hello kid, Good morning/afternoon! Ask: What have you learned from your previous activities? (I learned when to say Good morning/Good afternoon/Good evening.) Say: Aside from greeting Good morning/Good afternoon there are also other polite expressions that we can use in order to show our gratitude to someone. We can say "Thank you." when someone gave us something or did good things or favor to/for us. Ask: What are you going to do if someone shares you a bread? (I will say "Thank you") What if you give your mother a flower and she says "Thank you?" What will you say? (You're welcome) Say: This time, we will make a thank you card.		Optional: Start the day's activity with a prayer. Use any prayer the child is familiar with. Then sing any familiar localized song.

What's new	Activity 3: My “Thank You” Card Procedure: 1. Let the learner choose a family member whom he/she wanted to thank for. 2. Assist the learner in writing the message of the “Thank you” card. The message may be written in learner’s mother tongue. 3. Let the learner decorate the card or put color using crayons.	• bondpaper • pencil • crayons • any available material that can be used to decorate the card	Assist the learner in writing the message of the “Thank you” card.
What is it	Discussion (Informal Conversation) about the Activity Say: Show me your “Thank you” card. Wow! it looks lovely. Ask: To whom will you give your card? What did you write on your card? Why are you giving “Thank you” card to (name of person)? Say: I have here something for you. Now: Give to the learner the ‘Thank You Card’ you have prepared. If she/he says, “Thank You”, do not forget to say, “You’re welcome.” (If she doesn’t say “thank you”, ask ‘What will you say?) Say: Yes, when someone gives us something or do something good for us, we should say “Thank you”. When someone thanked you for something, you should say “You’re welcome”. Here is another scenario: Your friend helps you in arranging the toys, what will you say? (Thank you) Then, what should be the response of your friend? (You’re welcome) Excellent! You now deserve to have a break.		Prepare in advance a “Thank You” card for the learner and give it to the him/her after doing his/her ‘thank you’ card. Remember to say “You’re welcome” if s/he says, “Thank You.”

What's more	Snack Time: • Washing of hands before and after eating • Thanksgiving prayer • Eating etiquette		Teach the learner the importance of these routines and encourage him/her to practice all of these during snacks and meal time.
	Activity 4: 7 Gifts for my Family Procedure: 1. Provide the learner with an old notebook or sheets of paper. 2. Let the learner do the following: • draw seven things to be given to the members of the family as gifts; and • color the drawing and label them; 3. Help the learner write this, “7 Gifts for My Family Members” as title. 4. Tell what polite words should be said when someone receives a gift (thank you), and how does one respond to this expression. (you're welcome)	• used notebook (can be recycled) or sheets of paper • coloring materials • pencil	Provide assistance to the learner whenever needed but do not do the activity for him/her.
What I have learned	Wrap-up Ask: How many gifts do you intend to give to your family members (7) Let us count the gifts you have drawn for your family members (1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7). Yes, there are seven gifts. Why did you choose these gifts? (answer may vary)

	What do you think your mom/dad/brother/sister would say if you will give him/her a gift? (they will say, “Thank you”) What will be your response, if they will say “Thank you”? (You’re welcome)
What I can do	Application • Let the learner practice saying “Thank you” every time someone gave him/her something or do something for him/her. Example: You give the child water to drink. You ask the child what he/she will would say after you gave him/her water. (S/he should say “Thank you”.) • Let him/her practice saying, “You’re welcome” when someone tells him/her “Thank you”. Example: The child hands over the glass to you. You say “Thank you.” and the child should say “You’re welcome.”)	Encourage the learner to always say “Thank you.” and “You’re welcome.” when applicable.

Most Essential Learning Competencies: Use polite greetings and courteous expressions in appropriate situations 1.3. Excuse me/I'm sorry
Content Focus: We care for one another by using polite words and actions.
Learning Experiences		Materials	Note to the Facilitator
What I need to know	I can say "Excuse me /I'm sorry" in an appropriate situations.
What I know	Say: Hi! Good morning/afternoon? Ask: What have you learned from your previous activities? (I learned about when to say "Thank you" and "You're welcome"). What are you going to say if someone gives you a gift? (Thank you) What if somebody said "Thank You" because you gave him/her a gift, what will you say? (You're welcome) Say: Today, we are going to learn another polite expressions, "Excuse me" and "I'm sorry" Remind the learner of this: I say "Excuse me" when interrupting or disagreeing with someone or to request repetition to what has just been said. I say "I'm sorry" if I am telling someone for		Optional: Start the day's activity with a prayer. Use any prayer the child is familiar with. Then sing any familiar localized song.

	the hurt I caused, even if I didn't do it intentionally. Are you ready for the next activity?
What's new	Activity 5: Saying "Excuse me" and "I'm sorry" Procedure: 1. Say the following scenario and ask the learner what to say or do: • "Rob is playing ball inside their house. While he was busy playing, the ball accidentally hit his Mama Rina's favorite red rose". What do you think should Rob do? (Let the learner act out what should Rob do.) • Rob wants to tell his mother something, but her mother is talking with someone. What should Rob say? (Let the learner act out what should Rob do/say.)
What is it	Discussion (Informal Conversation) about the Activity Ask: What should you do when you hurt someone? (say, I'm sorry) Say: What if your baby sister cried because you didn't share your toys to her. What are you going to do? (Apologize to her) How are you going to do it? (I will say "I'm sorry for not sharing my toys.") What if you want to talk to your brother but he is busy doing something. What should you say? (I should say, Excuse me) In our role play a while ago, what is the name of the child who played the ball? (Rob)

	What is the name of Rob's mother? (Rina) What is the beginning letter of the words Rob and Rina? (Rr) What is the sound of letter Rr? /r/ Say it again three times. (/r/) Yes, the sound of letter Rr is /r/. This is how letter Rr looks like (show the template of letter Rr found in Annex 2). Again, what is the sound of letter Rr? (/r/) What are the things inside the house that begin with letter Rr? Excellent! We will now take a break.		If the child does not know the name of the letter introduce it to him/her. Show the template of letter Rr. Use the one found in Annex 2.
What's more	Snack Time: • Washing of hands before and after eating • Thanksgiving prayer • Eating etiquette		Teach the learner the importance of these routines and encourage him/her to practice all of these during snacks and meal time.
	Activity 6: My Letter Rr Mosaic Procedure: 1. Provide the learner with the outline of letter Rr. (Utilize the one used in the previous activity.) 2. Let the learner do the following: • cut the recycled/scrap colored papers or old magazines into small pieces (or any shape he/she wants) or eggshells cracked in small pieces; • paste the cut recycled/scrap colored papers or old magazines in the letter Rr outline; and	• recycled/scrap colored papers/old magazines or eggshells cracked in small pieces • pair of scissors • glue	Prepare a letter Rr Outline (utilize the one used in the previous activity) and recycled/scrap colored papers/old or eggshell cracked in small pieces magazines. The child may use other materials found in your locality such as leaves, twigs, sequence, etc.

	• trace/touch the form of the letter Rr mosaic.
What I have learned	Wrap-up Ask: What have you learned from today's activities? (I learned about when to say "I'm sorry" and "Excuse me".) When do you say "I'm sorry"? (when I hurt someone) When do you say "Excuse me"? (when I need to talk to someone but he/she is still busy) Say: We can say "I'm sorry" when we have hurt someone. We can also say "Excuse me" when we want to talk to someone who is busy with something. Ask: What letter did you learn today? (letter Rr) What is the sound of letter Rr? (/r/) Say it three times /r/.
What I can do	Application • Let the learner practice saying "I'm sorry" and "Excuse me" at home when appropriate situation arises. • Let the learner do finger play using the 7 pieces of rubber bands or any counter that begins with letter Rr. Let the learner say the beginning sound of the word rubber. Let him/her count the rubber bands before playing.

Most Essential Learning Competencies: Use polite greetings and courteous expressions in appropriate situations 1.4. Please..../May I
Content Focus: We care for one another by using polite words and actions.
Learning Experiences		Materials	Note to the Facilitator
What I need to know	I can say “Please” and “May I” in an appropriate situations.
What I know	Say: Good morning! How are you feeling today? You have learned about when to say “I’m sorry” and “Excuse me” in your previous activities. When do you say “Sorry”? (When I have hurt someone) When do you say “Excuse me”? (When I want to talk to someone and he/she is still busy with something) Aside from the polite expressions that you have learned from our previous activities, we will also learn two more polite expressions today. This is when to use “Please” and “May I”. Say: We say “Please” to politely ask for something. Example: Please give me my pencil. Please listen to me. Please throw the garbage in the trash bin. We say “May I” if we ask a permission from someone. May I use your pencil? May I borrow your book?		Optional: Start the day’s activity with a prayer. Use any prayer the child is familiar with. Then sing any familiar localized song.

What's new	Activity 7: Saying “Please” and “May I” at Home Procedure: 1. Narrate scenarios for the learner to listen to. 2. Let him/her say the most appropriate polite words for each scenario: • Risa lost her ring. She looks for her ring, but she could not really find it. She thought of asking her friend Ron to help her find the lost ring. What should Risa say to Ron? (Please help me find my ring.) • You want to use your brother’s jacket. What would you say to your brother? (May I use your jacket?)		You may add more scenarios that will lead to saying polite words like “Please” and “May I”.
What is it	Discussion (Informal Conversation) about the Activity Ask: What are you going to say when you want to ask someone to do something for you? (please) How about when you want to ask permission from someone? (May I) Why do we have to say polite words to someone? (It helps us to deal with other people easily and smoothly. It shows respect and care for other people.) Say: It is always nice to say polite words to other people to show our respect. Ask: What was the name of the girl who lost her ring? (Risa) What is the beginning sound of the word Risa? (/r/) Say it again three times. (/r/) Give me more examples of words that begin with /r/? (ruler, rat, rabbit, radio, rainbow, etc.)

What's more	Snack Time: • Washing of hands before and after eating • Thanksgiving prayer • Eating etiquette		Teach the learner the importance of these routines and encourage him/her to practice all of these during snacks and meal time.
	Activity 8: Letter Rr Poster Procedure: 1. Give the learner a letter Rr poster and let him/her say “Thank you” after receiving it. 2. Let the learner do the following: • identify the letter in the template. • produce the sound of the letter; • think of objects that begin with letter Rr; and • draw the objects that start with letter Rr inside the template of the letter; and • write label on the poster. 3. Encourage the learner to ask questions while doing the activity. (e.g. Please, let me know how many objects to be drawn in the poster? May I request you to see my drawing?)	• recycled cardboard or bond paper • pencil • crayon
What I have learned	Wrap-up Ask: What have you learned from today's activities? (I learned to say “Please” and “May I”) What objects have you drawn on your letter poster? (I drew objects that begin with letter Rr)

	Kindly name the objects/things that you have drawn. Ask: What is the sound of letter Rr? /r/ What are the objects/things that you have drawn? Say: All the things/objects that you drew begin with letter Rr.
What I can do	Application • Practice saying the polite words “Please” and “May I” at home when appropriate situation arises. • Let the learner find 7 things inside/outside the house that begin with /r/.	Encourage the learner to practice saying the polite words “Please and “May I” at home when appropriate situation arises.
